

this house, endorsed, "will not pass;" but by the printed journal of the senate this day, laid upon the desks of this house, we observed that the bill has passed your honourable body, there being only one dissenting vote; we therefore presume the clerk has made a mistake in endorsing the bill, and return it to you to be corrected.

Mr. Farquhar, as chairman of the standing committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, delivered the following reports; which were severally read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table, viz.

The committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, to whom was referred the petition of Ann Coward, of the city of Baltimore, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to Ann Coward, of the city of Baltimore, or to her order, during life, in half yearly payments, a sum of money equal to the half pay of a captain, as a further remuneration for her husband, William Coward's services, during the revolutionary war.

By order,

Jacob S. Smith, Com. Clk.

The committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, to whom was referred the petition of Sarah Smith, of the city of Baltimore, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to Sarah Smith, of the city of Baltimore, or to her order, during life, in half yearly payments, a sum of money equal to the half pay of a major, (in lieu of the half pay of a captain which she now receives,) as a further remuneration for her late husband, Nathaniel Smith's services, during the revolutionary war.

By order,

Jacob S. Smith, Com. Clk.

The committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, to whom was referred the petition of Mary Moore, of Dorchester county, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to Mary Moore, of Dorchester county, or to her order, during life, in half yearly payments, a sum of money equal to the half pay of a private, as a further remuneration for her husband, Reuben Moore's services, during the revolutionary war.

By order,

Jacob S. Smith, Com. Clk.

The committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, to whom was referred the petition of Walter Pruit, of Worcester county, have had the same under their consideration, and beg leave to recommend the adoption of the following resolution:
